TO WORSHIP THE LORD OUR GOD

Responsive Call to Worship Liturgist: Nancy Thornburgh
The grace of the Lord Jesus Christ be with you all.
And also with you.

Come into God's presence with a clean heart, with a new and right spirit.

We will worship God in Spirit and in Truth.

Raise your voices in song and in prayer.

We will sing God's praises and offer God our lives in prayer.

Call to Confession

Liturgist: Nancy Thornburgh

Friends, we all have sinned and fallen short of the glory of God. The good news is that with God, grace abounds, and forgiveness is real to all who confess. Let us confess our sins collectively and then personally.

Unison Prayer of Confession

Liturgist: Nancy Thornburgh

Giver of manna, Breaker of bread, Creator of the new, it is true that we still do what we have not learned from Christ. We can be hard-hearted when we should be forgiving. We can be selfish when we should be willing to share. We can be greedy and complaining when we have enough to get by. We can be unscrupulous in our dealing as if we did not know what is just and true. Forgive us and finish your new creation through Jesus Christ. Amen.

Silence for Personal Confession

Responsive Assurance of Forgiveness

Liturgist: Nancy Thornburgh

Friends hear the good news! Hope is held out in God's call to you.

One Christ, one faith, one baptism, one God, parent of us all.

Friends believe the good news!

In Jesus Christ, we are forgiven. Thanks be to God!

Affirmation of Faith – Adapted from the Confession of 1967, 9.32-33

The life, death, resurrection, and promised coming of Jesus Christ has set the pattern for the church's mission. His human life involves the church in the common life of all people. His service to men and women commits the church to work for every form of human well-being. His suffering makes the church sensitive to all human suffering so that it sees the face of Christ in the faces of persons in every kind of need. His crucifixion discloses to the church God's judgement on the inhumanity that marks human relations, and the awful consequences of the church's own complicity in injustice. In the power of the risen Christ and the hope of his coming, the church sees the promise of God's renewal of human life in society and of God's victory over all wrong. The church follows this pattern in the form of its life and in the method of its action. So to live and serve is to confess Christ as Lord.

Our Father, who art in heaven, Hallowed be Thy Name. Thy Kingdom come. Thy will be done on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread. And forgive us our debts, as we forgive our debtors. Lead us not into temptation but deliver us from evil: For Thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory, for ever. Amen.
